

NEWMAN NORMS

SECONDARY CAMPUS

Effective learning occurs in a secure environment where the dignity and responsibilities of others are known and respected and where standards and rules are fairly and consistently applied.

AS NEWMAN COLLEGE STUDENTS WE WILL:

- Embed the Marist Characteristics of Family Spirit, Presence, Simplicity, Love of Work & In the Way of Mary in all our actions, words and interactions.
- Strive to achieve our personal best & take responsibility for our actions; accepting consequences & celebrating successes.
- Act with integrity & show respect for the privacy, dignity & rights of others.
- Be polite in words & actions; actively listening when engaging with staff, peers & visitors to the College.
- Follow instructions & directions from staff respectfully on the first occasion.
- Be reverent during religious celebrations.
- Wear the College uniform correctly, & take pride in our personal presentation.
- Positively represent Newman College in the wider community.
- Be punctual & line up outside the classroom before the second bell.
- Attend all lessons & bring the required equipment.
- Enter lessons quietly, stand behind our chairs, greet our teacher & respond to the roll call with “here” or “present”.
- Wait for instructions to pack up & to be dismissed at the end of the lesson.
